

Attacking Children

It's astounding to me that a social experiment always comes down to children. The Chinese little red book was taught in schools. Hitler had the Nazi youth. We have all heard of the child soldier in Africa. Yet, many of us think that those are distant things. That we don't experiment on people, little alone kids anymore. We know better now! We don't enslave people. We don't kill people in mass quantities thorough genocide and war. Somehow the 2000's have not gotten the memo.

I still can't believe that Russia decided to go to war. In this day and age how can killing to take land be a thing? I thought we were past that? Are the Russian people just going to sit by and let themselves be tarnished by their government? I noticed that killings in Israel/Palestine is back in the news. Oh, so the covid peace era is over? They say that crime was down during the pandemic. Yep, even riots stopped for the most part. Now the world is slowly opening up. Is death and destruction back in business as usual?

I have said this before but it needs repeating. As a kid I played in the mud and dirt. We got toys for Christmas. I was pumped to get play-dough. We collected sports cards and played sports. Recently in the news there has been a silent war between sexual groups and parents. Who has the right to teach the kids about sex? When is the right time to open up kids to their sexual desires? Someone said in a podcast, why can't kids eat, play, and learn math? What is really going on? I believe it's a silent war to gain control of the next generation. To move children away from societal concerns and towards a modern sexual revolution.

What does God have to say? If you really read the Bible, you will find that sex is prominent in God's word. From Song of Solomon to Lot's Daughters, sex is in the Bible!

David's greatest mistake was sexually driven. God has no hang-ups with sex. Its God approved. But we have an issue with sex. Throughout history societies have made sex the main issue. There were temple prostitutes, Greek boys were sexual partners to men. Temple Gods were sexual in nature. Everyone has an opinion and issue with sex. Yet, most people (when asked) will say God has a problem with sex. Compared to us? Oh no, God has very little concern. Do sex right and things go well. Do sex wrong and all hell breaks loose.

What do war and kids have in common? They don't get a say. We hand them a gun and force them to shoot. We tell them they are sex slaves and they can't argue. The new war on kids is to give them choices. We have evolved! The choices are what kind of sex do you want. What kind of things do you want sex with? Now, in those school rooms and social media platforms, is playing with toys, mud, and hockey sticks among the choices? The silent war wants to remove parental rights. Who gets to give kids planned choices?

Today, we say that women's rights gave them the freedom to choose. Yet, they are forced to compete with males who claim they are women. Many female toys are banned, and female clothing is being turned into gender neutral clothing. Freedom of choice? Oh no, it's forced choices. Sexual orientation choices. Are kids free to choose their gender and sexuality? Sort of? Is the heterosexual community part of that conversation? Not in the alphabet community. There are only forced choices. Forced to take the classes. Forced to choose their sex. And forced to wear what the new society chooses for them. This freedom (me too) movement is by far not about freedom of choice. You are; however, free to choose their choices for you.

In Florida the government passed a law that bans sexual discussion from k-6 grades. Let kids play in the mud and be kids for a time. The alphabet community disagrees. They want their choices to be included. They have rights to give their opinion on your kids. The war is centred on kids. They want them and we got them. The battle continues. The crazy part is people who adore sexual freedom don't generally have kids. Yet, they want yours. They want to own kids' freedom of choice. They want heterosexual couples to make babies for them to indoctrinate the little ones about sexual choices. Once the baby is out, it's not yours anymore. Who owns these kids?

The rule of thumb in the Christian world is that God owns your kids. They are His souls. We birth them and are allowed to raise them for a time. Yet, in all reality they are God's kids. In my way of thinking the alphabet community wants to be God. Yes, you birthed them, but in the end, they are theirs. They get to give the choices. They get to decide the schooling. They choose the cloths and toys to play with. This new war wants kids to know that there is no freedom of choice in this new sexual freedom movement. The only movement you get is towards their choices for you. Who loses? The parents, kids, or society? Honestly, I think it's all of the above. A country fought for freedom but are now losing the battle in 2022. I'm astounded how far we are from the hope that the original Star Trek portrayed. What the Hippies marched against. What the race riots wanted. It's freedom to chose freely. Like all the other evil groups in history. They don't want you to be free. Not by a long shot. So, as per usual, let's go after the children.
