

Restricting freedom

What happens when a country restricts its people their freedoms in the name of freedom? J Vernon McGee says your freedom ends where my nose begins. I have read stories of the conversion of Russia to communism. It began as the people's party. Then it morphed into the people's socialist party. Finally, it transformed into the people's socialist communist party. The key was people. They were created to help people oppose bad government. Yet, death, starvation, and economic collapse followed. To be fair, only death and starvation has happened to China. There have been plenty of other examples of governments trying to be the people's party.

The Liberal and NDP parties of Canada claim to be the people's party. Yet, they both are trying hard to restrict our freedoms in the name of the people. Canada is in a weird place. We know it is going to go badly but were Canadian. When have we ever fought for our own freedom on our own soil? The fact is we have not. I am not so sure we could. Our fundamental makeup is held together by the belief in non-violence and peace. The Liberal way is at all costs. This brings me back to death and starvation. Will Canada allow itself to implode just to uphold an ideology?

I could not find it, but there is a theory that states: we could live as we are under foreign occupation. There are many people in Canada that believe we can still be Canada while being taken over by a foreign power. Our lives will not change. This type of thinking has seeped into debt. Canadians believe someone will bail us out because we are friendly Canada. Others believe that terrorists will not harm us because we are friendly Canada. The Liberal way states we should be free to do as we please. Yet, within this people's party is the looming lack of freedom.

What does God have to say? John 8:32 “And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.” Ironically Pilot asked Jesus “what is truth?” This culture has stated that this is the era of questioning truth. Biology is questioned. The Bible is questioned. Law has been questioned. It is good for a generation to find its own way of seeking truth. Know why it is true. Yet, this current generation is abandoning truth and replacing it with how we feel about things. I do not feel it is true. Clearly this generation is at odds with history and the truth. God told us how to be free. That is not what the government and certain activist groups want.

So, where does that leave us? I for one like it. Darwin says the fittest will survive. Now, does fittest mean strong or smart? Is it cunning or clever? I like (no truth) because it will weed out the weak. I want humanity to survive. I for one believe we need the fittest to survive. They are those who will ultimately carry on. Will those not making babies carry on? Will those who say 2 plus 2 is not 4 carry on? When your prescription calls for two pills: take 3 or 6! Darwin will be right! One way or the other only the fittest (strongest and smartest) will survive.

Canada is on a path that is steaming towards implosion. The debt is massive. The right and freedoms of the people are eroding one law at a time. Taxes are rising and the ability to do business is daunting. Canada will meet Darwin. Oh, yes, they will! Yet, will the foreign power that owns us let the people remain Canadian? Will Canada be able to fix the messes of this generation? I believe they cannot. It has gone too far. Our ideology has left us as deer in the headlights. Were just standing here waiting for help as the train comes barreling down.

They say it is not true. Debt is just a construct. They say it is not true. We can have a large gay community and still make babies. They say it is not true that foreign interests will harm us. We are friendly Canada. We can live in a country that controls the public narrative and have liberal freedom. We can work hard to help those who do not work. Let us kill capitalism! That giving money to the world will save us from terrorism. They say a lot of things. Yet, why is there not alarm bell? The truth shall set you free! The truth is you will be looking for the alarm bell only when it is too late. When the freedom to use the bell is gone. The only freedom that will remain for Canada is to embrace two staples of the liberal people's party: death and starvation. Let's hope in the short-term Darwin has replaced God in Canada. It just might be the only way through this mess.
